

Richard McCann, Co-Owner & Partner, Summit Performance Group

Richard McCann has more than 24 years experience in the hospitality and travel industry. McCann, along with co-owner and partner Douglas Wheeler, formed the Summit Performance Group in 2003 to provide top-notch, custom tailored corporate incentive travel and meeting management programs for both large and small companies. Under McCann's guidance SPG has become one of the industry's leading corporate incentive travel and meeting management companies serving numerous Fortune 1000 companies. Prior to forming SPG, McCann operated Summit Incentive Travel, a company that successfully developed and executed custom tailored travel programs for numerous U.S. and international corporations. The company specialized in corporate incentive travel, event management, site selection and corporate sports hospitality at such major venues as the Super Bowl, World Series, Olympics and major golf tournaments including Masters and US Open. Previously, McCann directed the incentive travel division of San Diego's Fantastic Sports. He also was with La Costa Resort and Spa, where he served in a variety of sales and marketing executive positions.
